Excerpt: . . . slight assistance in the initial work being done for the training of Hungarian students for the ministry at Scranton, Pa. ; and, through its representatives in connection with those of other bodies, is engaged in negotiations with the authorities of Mt. Pleasant Institute in VWestem Pennsylvania, concerning the utilization of its property for this purpose. These constitute minor exceptions to the general policy of the Society in regard to the preparation of men for missionary service among our foreign populations. (8) Comity and co-operation with other denominational organi zations engaged in this work. There is a general understanding among our home missionary societies that there shall be no encroachment by one upon the established work of another. The kind and the extent of co-operation is the subject of consideration by some of these bodies. The Home Missions Council at its last meeting created a standing committee on work among foreign speaking people. (9) Promotion of interest. To awaken interest in the evangelization of these peoples the Society has published a vast quantity of literature, has presented the subject forcibly to the churches and to the denomination, at the Anniversaries, by men of many nationalities; has co-operated with other agencies in promoting the circulation of study-books on various aspects of the problem, and is at present committed with other Home Mission organizations represented in the Home Missions Council and the Council of Women for Home Missions in making this the distinctive feature of a united...
